

I disagree with the ARRL plan to remove the morse code requirement from the General class and up license requirements. I strongly disagree with the proposal to automatically upgrade Technician class licensees to General without additional testing.